

Volunteers Needed for Wetland Restoration:

Naval Support Facility
Indian Head, Maryland

The National Aquarium in Baltimore, in partnership with the Department of Navy, Southern Maryland Resource Conservation and Development Board, Charles County Soil Conservation District, and the Charles County Master Gardeners will work to restore wetland habitat along a section of the Potomac River.

WHEN: Friday, July 11 — Saturday, July 12. Volunteers are able to sign up for one or several days. Field Days run from 9am-4pm.

HOW: Pre-registration is required for this event. Please contact Charmaine Dahlenburg to receive your registration packet.
conserve@aqua.org
410-659-4274

Because of security restrictions on the base you must be an American citizen to participate in this event and a minimum age of 18. Work may be strenuous. Please notify us in advance if you have any special needs, as access to the site is limited.